

Please note that the measurements G, H, and I must be measured from the top of the pad. This will insure that your new top pad will fit correctly. Please mark placement and distance between your existing d-rings for top pad attachment.

